

Passed by Executive:
Passed by Union Council and became Policy: 5 November 2009
Lapses: November 2012

Executive Officers' Code of Conduct

This Union Notes:

1. Executive Officers should follow rules and regulations
2. Executive Officers should not damage the good name of the organisation

This Union Believes:

1. Executive Officers are at the forefront of the organisation
2. Executive Officers should set a good example
3. Part time officers and full time officers should liaise with a full time officer before making significant decisions

This Union Instructs Executive:

1. To follow this Code of Conduct

Executive Officers' Code of Conduct

- Conduct yourself politely, constructively and conscientiously at University meetings
- Take into consideration current CUSU policies both inside and outside meetings
- Respect other Executive Officers' opinions, even if they differ from yours
- Send apologies for absence at all meetings, including Executive Committee

Proposed by: Becky Hill, Vice President Academic Affairs

Seconded by: Steve McCarthy, Vice President Student Activities