

A306CSU - STUDENTS' UNION WORK EXPERIENCE: SPORTS AND SOCIETIES

MODULE SUMMARY

The aim of this module is to enable students and existing sports and societies officials, representing the Student Union and the University, to contribute to the sustainable development of the sport and society. On completion of this module students will be able to reflect on and discuss the competencies gained / activities participated in as a sports or societies official and identify any areas that the sport /society may wish to develop in the future.

ENTRY REQUIREMENTS

None.

SKILL BUILDER

Leadership, communication, organisation.

ASSESSMENT

Coursework (100%): A reflective piece on the contribution of sports and societies to the student experience at Coventry University including a handover file that includes recommendations for future sport / society development.

EXCLUDED COMBINATIONS

None.

FOR MORE INFORMATION VISIT:

<https://students.coventry.ac.uk/mid>

SCROLL DOWN TO VIEW
THE TESTIMONY

A306CSU - STUDENTS' UNION WORK EXPERIENCE: SPORTS AND SOCIETIES

TESTIMONY

The module encourages group work, and the feedback and ideas given are great. The coursework has been clearly explained, and the tutor is attentive with emails and their interest in teaching the module comes across. It is perfect for final year students who want an active module.

